

'How can social enterprises help deliver in the Health and Social Care sector?'

Monday 21st September 2015

Health & Wellbeing Innovation Centre, Truro

(Please note there is no parking on site – please use Truro Park and Ride)

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 10am | Welcome – HWIC, Karen Murray
Health & Social Care – the current landscape, Pam Cole |
| 10.15 am | Some great examples of how Social Enterprises deliver within the Health & Social Care setting: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Northern Soul▪ Care Right now▪ Carers Break▪ Active Plus |
| 11.30am | Break/networking |
| 11.45 am | Academic Health and Science Network – opportunities to contribute at scale (SIF, Communities of Care) |
| 12.30 pm | Lunch /networking |
| 1.30pm | Discussion – What can you offer, how might you work together? – led by Steve Turner, Care Right Now |
| 2.00pm | Proving your social credentials – the Social Enterprise Mark |
| 2.15pm | Why the Social Enterprise Mark is important to us as a social enterprise – Geraldine Scott-Smith, Pluss |
| 2.30pm | Break |
| 2.45pm | Networking or not? Make a personal plan for your organisation - Pam Cole |
| 3.30pm | Web chat with Chris Dabb, Northern Soul – what are the net benefits gained? |
| 3.50pm | Round up of the day and what next?
Feedback - Pam Cole |